a night, including round-trip airport transfers, breakfast and extra privileges. During their stay, guests can share an intimate picnic like a true Parisian.

When the weather heats up, the residents of the capital have turned picnicking into a fine art – a pastime as chic and appealing as the city itself. The Peninsula Paris Rooftop Garden Suites are an ideal destination for le pique-nique, the best way to appreciate the city's magic and enjoy a leisurely meal and lively conversation in a beautiful outdoor setting. The hotel's Executive Chef and Meilleur Ouvrier de France, Christophe Raoux has created with his team, a Parisian pique-nique offer, including all the essentials for an authentic taste of French cuisine: Parisian sandwich with freshly baked baguette, duck foie gras from Aveyron, fresh lobster salad, a selection of cheese and delightful pastries of colourful macarons and buttery eclairs.

Alternatively, friends may gather on the terrace for a rooftop barbecue party featuring classic American, Asian or Mediterranean cuisines. The hotel's expert sommelier is on hand to pair the perfect fine wines, Champagnes and cocktails with each curated menu.

Reserve our Secret table for an exclusive and romantic dinner under the stars with a loved one

A slice of heaven on the private rooftop terrace located on the seventh floor of the building.
